- Any person pursuant to any order of a court of competent jurisdiction or comparable legal process; and if you are a VIP Member or a customer, we may transfer your Personal Information to your upline and or sponsor when we determine it necessary to ensure proper upline support or for consultant educational purposes.

In such disclosure circumstances, we will take reasonable steps to ensure that any third-party recipients agree to reasonable security mechanisms to protect your Personal Information.

We do not disclose your Personal Information to third parties for the third parties' own direct marketing purposes. You have certain rights regarding how we use and keep your Personal Information.

These are:

- Disclosure. You have the right to know what Personal Information has been collected about you and shared with others.
- Deletion. Subject to certain exceptions, you have the right to request that your Personal Information be deleted.
- Opt-Out. If we were to sell your Personal Information, you have the right to ask us Not to Sell it.
- Nondiscrimination. You have the right not to be discriminated against for exercising your rights.

You can exercise the above rights, where applicable by contacting us utilizing the contact information provided within this Policy. We will respond to any of your requests to exercise these above consumer rights within the period prescribed by applicable laws.

At our discretion, we may require you to prove your identity before providing the requested information. This is to ensure that your Personal Information is disclosed only to you. We may not be able to appropriately handle your request, if you decide not to provide us with the Personal Information that we need to handle your request.

Except as disclosed in this Policy, we do not sell, trade, rent, or otherwise retransmit any Personal Information we collect online unless we have your permission. Any Personal Information you provide to us will be stored in our US databases or with our third-party vendors who process our credit card and related operational transactions in the United States of America.

Sanavi International may disclose certain Personal Information to third-party vendors, as necessary, to provide you with your requested product or service and to third parties who provide various services to Sanavi International, all of which must adhere to this Policy.

To assure the highest level of personal service to our consultants and customers, we may share Personal Information about you (excluding credit card information and certain order details) with your servicing consultant, who is also bound by this Policy .

We take special care to protect the privacy needs of children. Our Site does not target and is not intended for children under the age of 18, and we will not knowingly collect Personal Information from them. You must be at least 18 years old to be a customer and/or consultant.

We will provide required Personal Information in response to a lawful court order, subpoena, or government investigation. We also reserve the right to report to law enforcement agencies any activities that we in good faith believe to be unlawful. We may release Personal Information when we believe that such release is reasonably necessary to enforce contracts and/ or agreements or to protect the rights, property, and safety of others and ourselves.

Credit card information collected at registration or for shopping cart orders is used only to process payment for the transaction and, generally, is not retained on our Site. You may, however, voluntarily elect to securely store personal credit card information for use in future orders on your web browser. You may add, edit, and delete your stored card information at any time.

All billing and other information submitted to this Site must be truthful and accurate. Providing any untruthful or inaccurate information is a breach of this Policy and may also be a breach of any applicable Sanavi International VIP Member Agreement and or Consumer Agreement. By completing the checkout process you agree to accept and to pay for the product(s) or service(s) requested. You represent and warrant that you have the legal right to use any credit card or other payment means used to complete any transaction.

NOTICE AND PROCEDURE FOR MAKING CLAIMS OF COPYRIGHT INFRINGEMENT. THIS NOTICE IS SUBJECT TO MODIFICATION OR TERMINATION AT ANY TIME, WHETHER FOR CHANGES IN THE LAW OR AT THE CONVENIENCE OF LIFEVANTAGE, WITHOUT ADVANCE NOTICE. YOU MUST CHECK THIS NOTICE FREQUENTLY TO ENSURE THAT YOU HAVE READ THE MOST CURRENT VERSION OF THIS NOTICE.

Sanavi International owns, protects and enforces copyrights in its own creative material and respects the copyright properties of others. It is Sanavi International's policy to respond as required by law to claims of copyright infringement. The Digital Millennium Copyright Act, Title 17, United States Code, Section 512(c) ("DMCA"), provides copyright owners or their authorized agents with a procedure for notifying service providers (as defined in the DMCA) of claims of unauthorized use of copyrighted materials.

Because Sanavi International is considered a service provider within the scope of the DMCA, it must comply with the notice and procedural requirements of the DMCA. If you believe any material on this site infringes your copyright or the copyright to any third party, you should promptly notify the following designated agent of Sanavi International in writing: Sanavi International Compliance Department E-mail: support@sanaviinternational.com or Sanavi International Office Address: 2901 W Blue Grass Blvd #200, Lehi, Utah, 84049-4190.

Your written notification to the above-referenced designated agent must include substantially all of the following information:

- An electronic or physical signature of the person authorized to act on behalf of the owner of the copyright.
- A description of the copyrighted work that you claim has been infringed.
- The exact location of the alleged infringing material.
- The exact location of the link to the alleged infringing material.
- Your address, telephone number and electronic mail address.
- A statement by you that you have a good faith belief that the disputed use of the copyrighted work is not authorized by the copyright owner, its agent or the law.
- A statement by you that the above information in your written notification is accurate and that you are the copyright owner or authorized to act on behalf of the copyright owner.
- Upon receipt of your written notification of an alleged copyright infringement, Sanavi International will take the following steps:
 - Remove or disable access to the alleged infringing work.
 - Forward your notification to the Respondent, who is responsible for the alleged infringing material ("Respondent").
 - Take reasonable steps to promptly notify the Respondent that Sanavi International has removed or disabled access to the alleged infringing material.
- At this point, the Respondent may submit a counter notification in writing to Sanavi International's designated agent. The counter notification must include substantially all of the following information:
 - An electronic or physical signature of the Respondent or someone authorized to act on behalf of the Respondent;
 - A description of the copyrighted material that has been removed or disabled;
 - The exact location of the material before it was removed or disabled;
 - A statement under penalty of perjury that the Respondent has a good faith belief that the copyrighted material has been removed or disabled as a result of mistake or misidentification; and
 - The Respondent's name, address and telephone number along with a statement that the Respondent consents to the jurisdiction of the Federal Court in the district in which he/she/it resides or, if the Respondent's address is outside the United States, a statement that the Respondent consents to jurisdiction of the United States Federal District Court situated in Utah County, Utah. Upon receipt of a counter notification containing substantially all of the foregoing information, Sanavi International will take the following steps:
 - Send you a copy of the Respondent's counter notification;
 - Inform you that Sanavi International will replace the alleged infringing material or cease disabling access to it within ten(10) business days; and Replace the alleged infringing material that was previously removed or cease disabling access to it not less than ten(10) or more than fourteen(14) days following receipt of the Respondent's counter notification, unless you have supplied Sanavi International's designated agent with evidence that you have filed an action seeking a court order to restrain the Respondent from engaging in the alleged infringement that was the subject of your written notification.

Sanavi International's policy is to terminate the online privileges of individuals who repeatedly violate the copyrights of others.

Our Site and its Content is provided "as is" and "as available", with no warranty of any kind.
