RECHARGE YOUR SYSTEM

Comprehensive wellness backed by clinical science and natural synergy

OVERVIEW

Prime X is a functional daily supplement backed by science, designed to address five of the most common health challenges people face today.

It combines high-quality ingredients that are clinically supported and naturally effective.

Its exclusive 5-in-1 Synergy Technology is formulated to support and improve:

- Nutritional deficiencies
- Digestive imbalances
- Chronic inflammation and oxidative stress
- Metabolic dysfunction
- Nervous fatigue and emotional stress

CLINICAL BACKING

This formula combines patented ingredients that have been studied in controlled environments, ensuring safety, precision, and synergy.

Actazin® is a green kiwi extract that supports digestion, regulates intestinal transit, and promotes microbiome balance.

MitoHeal® is a blend of polyphenols that helps protect against oxidative stress, supports cellular regeneration, and improves skin appearance.

Sensoril® is an ashwagandha extract clinically proven to reduce stress, improve sleep, and restore emotional balance.
